SEMI-WEEKLY EDITION

SUPPLEMENT

IRELAND'S RENT PROBLEM

Judging from the flat business we have done this week and the very amusing things we have heard of late about election bets, "Our Action on the Hat" must not be considered as at all corresponding to the shock administered herewith. This reminds us that our is worthy of more frequent mention than we give it. We have, "Dunn' knights," sure you from $1.00 to $5.00 on your headgear, and supply you with reliable goods direct from the hands of first-class manufacturers. If you choose to give to the postmaster your exclusive hat fashion, whose receipt living and running expenses must come out of the profits they make on your hats. Our Fall Style Black Derby Hats at $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, and $2.50 are such as retail usually at from $3 to $5 per and show those prices, and our $3.00 Silk Hats have helped the Democratic cut in great shape. We want to make a

"Hat Dept."

DOUBLE-BARRELED SUGGESTION,

Prompted by the immense rush of trade throughout the entire wholesale week.

Winter Overcoat Suggestion

Gen. 5.

For from $15 to $30

We will undertake to supply you with a perfect-fitting Beaver, Melton, Kersey, Cheviotte, Cassimere, Friese, Fur Beaver, or Kersington Overcoat, which is fit, finish and style will strike you as ideal. We always support plain dealing gentlemen in the "Kingsport, Fort & Co." mode, for we find in many instances they even cause other garments.

Business Suit Suggestion

Gen. 5.

Say from $12 to $30.

You want to be suited. Let it be the popular fads, the more popular Four-Buttoned Cutaway Frock, or the Prince Albert shape, and we will undertake to give you as big value for your money and as correct an outfit as any house in this neighborhood. Better give preference to the Kingsport, Fort & Co. goods if you want something reliable.
